In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mr. L. M. Wilkes who died nine years ago, February 11, 1965.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his living
He gently closed his loving eyes, and whispered "Peace be thine".
What is home without a father,
All things this world may send,
But when we lost our father,
We lost our dearest friend.

To those who have a father,
Treat him with loving care,
You'll never know his value,
Until you see his vacant chair.

Sadly missed by Mrs. L. M. Wilkes and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simpson and family. 2-14-1t

GOOD NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

USE AND ENJOY YOUR FIREPLACE
Especially During The Energy Crisis

Learn how heat that a fireplace log gives depends on the concentration of woody materials - resin, water and ash. Also, it may know something about wood you buy, or can cut yourself, you will be able to understand how to season and heavy wood to save the ideal.

A full cord of dry hickory weighs about two tons and is approximately equal in energy value to a ton of hard coal or 200 gallons of fuel oil. According to the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture: On a pound to pound basis, heavy hardwoods are about half the heating value of coal and a third of the heating value of oil.

Burning light and heavy wood to get the ideal fire. Some of the kinds of wood that will burn with Osage orange, dogwood, hickory, beech, hard maple, birch, mulberry, apple, locust (all rate "above 83" heat units, based with hickory's rating of 100). Under the value of 74 (ignite faster and burn quicker) would be soft pine, cherry, sycamore, dougfir, tulip, or yellow poplar (all rate at the bottom of the list with the White pine with 50 heating value. (This is only a partial listing to give examples) When planning on building a fire in your fireplace, consider how to build a safe fire first, make sure your chimney is well ventilated, dampers open and the flue unplugged, before lighting fire. Poor ventilation causes the fireplace to smoke. Place a screen in front of your grate to catch any sparks -avoid burning wet or green wood -and, keep a fire extinguisher handy. Keep other combustibles at a distance and never use inflammable fluids indoors to light your fire.

A brochure on "How to Enjoy Your Fireplace" has been prepared by the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is available free by writing to the Forest Service, Upper Darby, Pa. 19082.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
BEAR-TRACK COOKIES
2½ cups sifted all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup margarine
½ cup sugar
½ cup fortified chocolate-flavored syrup
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ cup milk

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together.

Mix margarine and sugar in mixing bowl until well blended.

Blend in fortified chocolate flavoring syrup, then add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition.

Stir in vanilla, then mix in dry ingredients alternately with milk.

Chill in refrigerator 1 hour.

Drop heaping teaspoonfuls of batter onto greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350° for about 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen.

Notes: Children will love making them on a cold winter day. This cookie is ideal to serve for a children's party.

The more you know about investing, the better Fidelity's 7¼% certificates look.

You've probably considered all the options. Like stocks. Bonds. Even South African gold mines.
Now consider this. Fidelity's 4-year certificates of deposit guarantee a 7¼% return. An effective annual yield of 7.52%. And your choice of monthly or quarterly interest payments. All for a minimum investment of just $1,000.
Fidelity's 7¼% certificates. For safety, growth and income, they look better every day.

Helping you grow helps us grow.
